BIBLE STORY - This week's Bible story is a sad and difficult event for children to understand. When we talk about Jesus' death on the cross, we immediately share the good news of His resurrection -- Jesus is alive! It is hard for children to understand how Jesus' death brings them forgiveness. But we can help them understand being sorry for bad choices, how to ask for forgiveness and then we as teachers and parents can say "I forgive you and so does Jesus." We believe that Jesus died and rose again. (1 Thessalonians 4:14)
